

Reserve Saint Jean White Alsace - Riesling Marcel Hugg

Faithful to family tradition since 1760, the Hugg family has spread its reputation for Fine Wines to the four corners of the earth. The company is proudly devoted to the art of producing Fine Wines and takes pleasure in passing on to wine and food lovers around the world the benefit of their knowledge of Alsace wines. Marcel Hugg's vineyards cover more than 25 hectares of vines in a region especially favoured by nature. While traditional methods of wine-making have been rigorously maintained, the Hugg family also used the most up to date equipment. This marriage of old and new enables the Hugg family to offer a prestigious marriage of fine wines among the best the French government has distinguished with the Appellation d'Origine Contrôlée label

100 % Riesling

Various hill-sides around the little village of Bergheim with a predominance of heavy soils compound by clay and limestone.

Constant care is lavished on all the wines before they are released from our cellars. Our single goal is quality. We know that quality is the best publicity there is.

Our cellars hold our wines in its still vats of a more modern style, so that the wine matures gracefully with all the time it needs

Eye : pale yellow colour. Nose : expressive, refined, with citrus and white flower aromas. Mouth : lively attack, refreshing acidity, lime, granny smith apple with a great structure, fruity with a clean and dry finish. A classy dry and gastronomic Riesling from Marcel Hugg !

With grilled, raw and lightly cooked in sauce fish dishes, seafood, poultry, white meat. Perfect for roast pork, veal chop, seafood and goat cheese.
